REBELS SMASH AT DOOMED MADRID

EXPERTS WILL MAKE REPORT NOV. 15

Present County Board Expected to Clinch Water Program

By BOB GUILD

A $2,000,000 Orange county bond election before January was virtually a certainty today.

A number of reasons were advanced for this certainty in court-house circles, although conjecture was rife as to what other actions will be taken by the board of supervisors prior to the radical changes in its makeup which will occur in January.

It was considered a foregone conclusion that the lineup of the board on political matters would change with the seating of its two new members, Steele Finley of Santa Ana, and Harry D. Riley of Anaheim. It also was considered a foregone conclusion that change would bode no good for several heads in the courthouse official family.

Action Expected

But more certain than that was the belief that the present board would hasten to completion plans for the county's $13,000,000 flood control program, which was inaugurated in the present board's regime.

Attitude of the new supervisors on the question of the $2,000,000 election necessary to insure the flood control program is not known officially for one thing, and the present board is expected to call the election before Finley and Riley are seated, in order to insure against any change in the present plans.

For another thing, the present board, after two unsuccessful tries, is hard after success in the matter of the flood control program, and wants nothing to interfere with its dream.

HIT-RUN CASE IS PROBED

A suspected hit-run accident was being investigated by California Highway Patrol Officer Horace Inge today.

Following a collision early today on the coast highway near Emerald bay, Inge was questioning J. H. Cooke, Long Beach, who was traced through license information.

An auto driven by Joseph R. Boykin, U. S. S. Sirius, San Diego, was involved in the accident, which slightly injured Boykin and three passengers.

The other driver then sped away, witnesses said, in a car which had been following the first auto. From the license number of the abandoned car Inge traced the owner.

In the Boykin car were Albert Leo McAttee, R. C. Fields, and T. W. Mills, all sailors. They were not seriously injured.

Three cars were involved in an accident at Seventeenth and Main streets last night, in which Mrs. Ray Snodgrass, Orange, was injured. She is in St. Joseph's hospital with a serious knee injury and a cut forehead incurred when the car in which she was riding, driven by Mrs. Pauline Hirstein, Orange, was struck by two other cars.

Their drivers were Helen Louise Fine, 114 West Santa Clara street, and Joseph Belton, Orange.

WALNUT GROVE BRINGS $18,000

J. L. Rees today had sold his 10-acre walnut orchard on South Ritchey street to Oscar Reimel of Santa Ana, who is replanting the property to oranges.

A home on the ranch, to be occupied by Reimel within a few weeks, was included in the transaction, which was at a price reported to be $18,000. Rees is planning to move to Bellflower.

Cook and Tubach, local real estate firm, handled the sale.

Clothespins Quiet Pupils

OKLAHOMA CITY, (AP)—A classroom "game" in which lips of talkative second grade youngsters were sealed with clothespins ended today by the teacher being "deeply sorry" and a parent suggesting "we forget the whole thing."

Parents of three pupils complained to Principal Ed Marshall of an Oklahoma City grade school over the teacher's disciplinary measure, reporting two of the children came home with swollen and bruised lips.

Strike Tieup Blocks U. S. Envoys to Peace Conclave

Lita Chaplin Remarries in Santa Ana

Lita Grey Chaplin, former wife of the great film comedian, Charlie Chaplin, selected Santa Ana for her second marriage, she announced early this week in Los Angeles. The marriage took place here in September, and her new husband is Henry Aguirre, jr., 26-year-old actor, with whom she is pictured above. They had kept the marriage a secret, Lita said, because she had been in ill health. (Associated Press Photo)

GAMBLING TO BANK RULING BE PROBED HITS DAWES

Grand Jury Is Summoned To Report Nov. 12 In Court Here

Stockholders Are Held Liable for Failure Of Institution

The annual hunt for the storm cellars is on.

Presiding Judge G. K. Seovel of the superior court today called the 1936 grand jury into session. Indications are the grand jury will have a busy time in the next few months. Last year's grand jury was the most active of any in the history of the county, and the district attorney's office has a number of investigations slated for this one which will make it earn its jury fees.

Foremost on the calendar is the slated investigation of the Seal Beach situation, although no verification could be found for the report the county's night spot would be put on the grill.

It is generally concluded that all the evidence was not submitted to the trial jury, for instance, in the case of the Craemer shoe, in the Seal Beach early last year.

Paralysis Closes Schools in Tulsa

TULSA, Okla., (AP)—The death of a fifth child from infantile paralysis brought an order today from Dr. Allen C. Kramer, county health superintendent, closing all the schools in Tulsa county for an indefinite period.

In the city of Tulsa, where three of the deaths have occurred within the past month, schools were ordered closed last Monday for two weeks.

LINER HALTED IN NEW YORK HARBOR

General Blockade Threat Voiced by Striking American Seamen

NEW YORK, (AP)—The S. S. American Legion, with the United States' delegation to the inter-American peace conference aboard, was ordered to anchor in New York Harbor today until six more seamen could be hired.

The order was issued by United States Shipping Commissioner W. N. Elliott who declared:

"Under the steamship inspectors' orders, the American Legion will anchor off the Statue of Liberty and have a fire and boat drill."

The ship, on which Secretary of State Hull and his party had embarked half an hour previously, had 190 crewmen aboard. The shipping commission required that six more men be signed on before the big liner could put to open sea.

The Matson line was informed the ship could leave the dock, outside of which paraded opposing pickets of the International Seamen's union, but that it could not go beyond the Statue of Liberty without those six more men.

6000 Move Out

Active resistance erupted into the maritime strike today, replacing the "sit down" action of the East coast which followed the walkout of 37,000 workers on the Pacific coast.

In the San Francisco bay region the spreading strike was further complicated by a walkout voted by shipyard workers. A. T. Wynn, secretary of the Bay District Metal Trades council, estimated 6000 workers in the Bethlehem shipbuilding plants would be affected.

Threaten U. S. Tieup

Striking New York seamen launched an intensive walkout and threatened to tie up all American vessels.

The strike was voted last night by the insurgent Seamen's Defense committee and favored active resistance.

Joseph Curran, head of the committee, told the seamen that workers in other Atlantic and Gulf ports already had struck and claimed the number out on the East coast exceeded 16,000.

Violence Reported

The first evidence of the Baltimore seamen's strike resulted in charges against 11 persons after a member of the Bull liner Hilton's crew was assaulted.

A mob of several hundred men last night stormed a poultry producers' warehouse in Oakland, Calif., and pummeled two men working in the plant. The warehousemen, affiliated with the International Longshoremen's association, also are on strike for higher wages and union hiring halls.

'Busy' Burglar Is Loafing in Jail

Southern California lost a very busy man today.

The man was busy today just sitting in a jail cell, thinking over a record of numerous burglaries in the Southland during the past few months. Some 800 thefts were committed during the period of his activity. He is Jack H. Allen, 37, arrested in a South Pasadena home Thursday night. He's a confessed "hoss stealer" from Oklahoma and burglar de luxe.

With a pair of snippers and a crowbar Allen, dubbed "The Phantom" by police, broke into a score of Santa Ana homes several weeks ago.

He wasn't particular whose home it was, either. City Councilman Joseph Smith and Deputy Sheriff Grace Hall had their homes burglarized while they were at work. He would watch the house carefully and enter when the residents were gone.

In Oklahoma Prison

Detective Lieut. Charles Wolford questioned him yesterday in South Pasadena. He admitted the burglaries here.

"Yup," he said. "That councilman's house you were talking about—that's the only place I took any clothes. I wrapped 'em up in a pillow case."

He admitted serving a penitentiary term in Oklahoma.

"Yup," he said. "Hoss stealing."

"Fences" In Jail

He disposed of his loot through two other men, "fences."

The "fences" are now in jail, too. And Wolford hopes to recover some of the property taken from Santa Ana homes.

He doesn't think that Allen will be brought to Santa Ana for trial—very soon, at least.

"Why," said Wolford, "he did 60 jobs in Pasadena, 60 in Alhambra, about 40 in South Pasadena, and just kept everybody hopping. They'll take care of him up there for a good long while."

HOEPEL, SON IN CUSTODY

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—United States Commissioner Melvin Flegenheimer remanded Rep. John W. Hoeppel of California, and his son, Charles J. Hoeppel, to Henrico county jail today to await a hearing Monday on their request for a writ of habeas corpus.

They were arrested here early today on a bench warrant charging them with being "fugitives from justice" after conviction of selling an appointment to West Point for $1000.

Commissioner Flegenheimer denied a request for their release under bond.

DEATH CLAIMS CHIC SALE

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—Charles "Chic" Sale, 51, noted comedian and author, died today of lobar pneumonia.

Death occurred at 12:50 p. m., Pacific standard time. Sale's family was at his bedside. The actor had been under an oxygen tent since last Monday.

The crisis in his illness was reached last night, following which Sale lost strength rapidly.

Government Flees As Moorish Horde Storms Into City

MADRID, (AP)—Gen. Sebastian Pozas seized complete command of Madrid's affairs today in the absence of the government and, with a desperate workers' army, clung grimly to the besieged city.

Pozas, generalissimo of the government forces in the Madrid area, became head of a new safety council in command of the city after government ministers had left before dawn by motor car for Valencia.

Diplomatic sources expressed the belief that some agreement may be reached where by Madrid's defenders will consent to surrender the city, if further defense seems hopeless.

With a council of defense taking the place of the government, now transferred to Valencia, and with a weary workers' army struggling with insurgents in the very edges of the city, diplomats were trying for an agreement between the combatants to avoid unnecessary bloodshed.

Under such an agreement, prisoners and hostages would be exchanged and the insurgents would be obliged to guarantee that there would be no reprisals without a fair trial.

An insurgent radio broadcast from Jaca, not confirmed from Madrid, said insurgent troops had advanced into Madrid proper. A report from Lisbon said the Fascists had taken the Toledo bridge within Madrid at dawn. The Madrid advices, heavily censored and delayed several hours, indicated only that the insurgents were in the city's outskirts.

Marcel Rosenberg, the Russian ambassador, closed his embassy and left with his staff for Valencia. It was believed he planned to establish a provisional embassy there, at Alicante or in Barcelona.

Tricked! Madrid Flash Foils Censor

By the Associated Press

A gay-eyed young man in his mid-twenties sent out today the camouflaged "flash" that told the Premier Francisco Caballero's Socialist government had resolved to abandon the capital.

He is James C. Oldfield, staff correspondent of the Associated Press foreign service, attached to the London bureau but sent to bolster the Madrid staff after the outbreak of hostilities.

Under the cold scrutiny of a revolver-armed Madrid government censor, standing at his elbow, Oldfield picked up the long-distance telephone and called London.

Remembers Code

He had his dispatch all written—passed by the censor after scores of words had been obliterated in accordance with the stifling censorship rules of the Socialist government.

No word, he had been strictly warned, must go over the wire to London, for cabled transmission to the United States, beyond what was written in the approved dispatch.

But at the back of his head, Oldfield carried secret code instructions—imparted to him before he left London, many weeks ago, by Frank H. King, chief of the London Associated Press bureau.

A simple phrase—a homely conversational interjection which the censor likely would not suspect, and in a matter of seconds the cable wires from London to New York crackled with the facts of one of the biggest news stories of the year, ahead of Oldfield's rival news gatherers.

Gate Uncertain

The exact code words are unimportant. Oldfield may have said, "How is my wife?"

But they were definite words—and they meant definite facts. His first message told the cable desk editor in London: "Authoritative sources say the government is reported planning to abandon the capital."

Later he called again. "Is wife better?" may have been his words, sounding unimportant to the censor at his elbow. But again the words had a definite meaning: "It is confirmed that the government has resolved to flee the capital."

An uncertain fate hung over Oldfield as he spoke the words. The government had repeatedly warned correspondents of "serious penalties" for anyone spreading uncensored information abroad.

U. S. C. C. SEES PROSPERITY

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The chamber of commerce of the United States today spoke out with high optimism on economic conditions, saying that business momentum is impressive, both in its extent and in its promise for the period ahead.

In its publication, "Washington Review," the chamber cited one favorable factor after another to support the conclusion:

"When all the evidence is brought together in an endeavor to consider the sum total of economic activity throughout the country, it appears unmistakably that since the summer of 1935 there has been steady progress."

Although such a prolonged advance might ordinarily suggest a temporary recession in the near future, the chamber reported that this did not appear in present economic cards.

Triplets Born At El Centro

EL CENTRO, (AP)—Dick Wolfe, Banning druggist, was due back from San Diego today with an incubator for his triplet daughters, born yesterday to Mrs. Wolfe at El Centro hospital.

Dr. C. S. Brooks said the babies were "very small," but they and their mother were "doing well."

100 AMERICANS IN MADRID

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The state department said today its latest advices indicated approximately 100 American citizens, including Filipinos and Puerto Ricans, were still in beleaguered Madrid.

They remained in the Spanish capital on their own responsibility, chiefly for business or family reasons, in spite of repeated urgent warnings by American diplomatic and consular representatives that they leave the city while there still were facilities for their evacuation.

POPPIES WILL ADD BEAUTY TO CITY

Women's Groups Plan Plantings for Vacant Lots, Parkings

Poppies, golden and crimson, soon will blaze forth to cover all Santa Ana's bare parkings and vacant lots, as part of a city-wide beautifying project launched this week by a representative group of civic-minded women.

The scheme will include spacious and colorful plantings of all approaches to the city, but the poppy has been selected as not only practical and swift-growing, but as a flower appropriate to California, and a fitting memorial tribute to the boys who died in France.

Program to Spread

Mrs. Fred Rowland, president of the Santa Ana Valley Ebell club, presided over the gathering of local organization heads at the Ebell clubhouse Wednesday, at which preliminary plans were made. A semi-permanent committee was organized and will be headed by Mrs. R. G. Tutthill, with Mrs. T. E. McLeod acting as secretary.

Each person present will bring the city-beautifying project to her own organization's attention, and it is hoped that each will have valuable suggestions to make at the next meeting of the group, to be held at 10 a. m., Nov. 24, at the Ebell clubhouse.

All organizations and individuals interested are urged to contact some one of the group.

Leaders of Movement

Those initiating the movement included Mrs. Rowland, Mrs. Edward Walker, president of the Garden Study club; Mrs. Ora K. Heine, head of the city planning commission; Mrs. J. T. Wilson, leader of the Ebell Garden section; Mrs. James McCracken, leader of the Woman's club garden section; Mrs. T. E. McLeod, president of the Better Gardens club; Mrs. Raymond Terry, leader of the Junior Ebell Garden section;

Miss Mabel McFadden, of the Y. W. C. A.; Mrs. Robert Sandon, president of the American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. John J. Mills, president of the Santa Ana Parent-Teacher association; Mrs. George Ravenkamp, president of the Catholic Parent-Teacher association; Mrs. Clyde Ashen, of the Young Ladies institute, and the Ebell public affairs committee, which includes Mrs. B. H. Sharpless, Mrs. Roy Shafer, Mrs. C. F. Smith, Mrs. J. W. McCormack and Mrs. R. G. Tutthill.

their completed report in the hands of the board by Nov. 15. With the appraisal figures in its hands, nothing would stand in the way of the board's calling the election for funds with which to purchase the rights-of-way within 30 days after the appraisers bow out of the picture.

Late in September Maj. Theodore H. Wyman, head of the United States army engineering corps in this district, told Chairman John G. Mitchell of the board that the government wished to call for bids for the first unit of the dam before Feb. 1.

First unit is the huge Prado dam, located on the headwaters of the Santa Ana river, in Riverside county.

Shortly after that the board took its first step to actually insure the program, when it adopted a resolution pledging the county to furnish necessary rights-of-way and flood easements, and to protect the federal government from any damages arising from the dam project.

The resolution of the county is not binding, in event the bonds are not passed, Chairman Mitchell said, but it gave the government authority to undertake preliminary work on the project.

Army engineers soon after that began taking test borings and surveying in vicinity of the Prado unit of the project, and are at work now, with the possibility that preliminary findings will be completed before the first of the year.

Chairman Mitchell at one time, in addition, said that the bond election would be called between Dec. 15 and Jan. 1.

And courthouse wise ones say we may rest assured the present board will let nothing stand in the way of completion of this project.

It will call the election this year, and before Messrs. Finley and Riley are officially seated as

Toyland Goes Ultra-Modern

When Santa Claus starts on his 1936 shopping tour he is going to find toyland ultra-modern, according to the annual pre-season display of the Toy Manufacturers of the United States, held in New York. One of the outstanding novelties was the duplication of a "modern" home. Above, Fanny Vitti, Anna Angelone and Joan Angelone are busy in one of the exhibits. Influence of the Dionne quintuplets is seen in the basket.

RESIDENT HERE 60 YEARS DIES

Charles Henry Warner, 89, and a resident of Orange county for 60 years, died yesterday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Schenk, 3113 Century boulevard, Southgate. He had been ill since an operation performed 18 months ago.

Warner came to Orange county from Omaha, Neb., on the immigrant train of 1876, with his bride. He homesteaded a ranch near Bolsa, which he operated 55 years.

On Oct. 10 of this year he and Mrs. Warner celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. He was a veteran of the Civil war. He is survived by his widow, Wealthy Sarah Warner; three sons, Thomas Warner of Corpus Christi, Texas; Benjamin C. Warner of Compton; and Glenn S. Warner of Tustin; three daughters, Mrs. George Anderson of Wilcox, Ariz.; Mrs. Emma W. Draper of Santa Ana, and Mrs. William J. Schenk of Southgate; 10 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. Monday at the Las Alamos Friends' church, with burial in Westminster cemetery.

Mrs. Ida Carey Taken By Death

Mrs. Ida C. Carey, 76, of 313 East Pine street, and a resident of Santa Ana for 35 years, died today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary C. Skillman of Fullerton, after an extended illness.

She was a member of Torosa Rebekah lodge and a native of Pennsylvania. She is survived by Mrs. Skillman and a son, Raymond L. Carey.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. from the Smith and Tutthill chapel, with the Rev. Graham Hunter of Fullerton officiating, burial in Fairhaven cemetery.

Still Seek Clew To Bullet in Car

While Brea police still sought a clew to the source of a bullet hole in the rear window of a car, its driver, Edward L. Feighner, 40, Anaheim, took in the county jail today, beginning a 75-day sentence on drunk driving charges.

W. H. Williams, Brea police chief, yesterday requested information from other police departments in a state-wide teletype message about the bullet hole, probably made by a .38-caliber slug.

Mrs. Geeting Is Returned as Head Of Women Voters

Mrs. M. E. Geeting was reinstated as president of the League of Women Voters at a meeting of that group last night in the study of the Unitarian church. She has been on leave of absence during the recent campaign.

Upon the resignation of the Rev. Julia N. Budlong as first vice president, Miss Dorothy Wentz, county librarian, was elected to the position.

The league made plans to enter a float in the mistle day parade, with "needed neutrality legislation" for its motif.

The next meeting of the organization will be a luncheon on Nov. 20. The new Long Beach league will be invited, and Mrs. J. D. Campbell, president of the state department of social welfare, will be the speaker.

MORE ABOUT MADRID

frantically to smash through the ranks of the besiegers advancing from outlying sections of the city.

The quaking populace that remained heard the ever-nearing din of battle as fierce Moorish hordes of the Fascist attackers invaded the outskirts of the city.

Fear-stricken women and children, even men, voiced the dread question paramount in every mind of those remaining in the seemingly doomed capital.

"What will the Moors do? Will they kill us all?"

Cause Lost
Bloody-banded soldiers, workmen fighters and girl volunteers, many of them in agonies of flesh-torn pain, staggered in from the other side of the city—from the firing lines where Socialist defenders still fought an apparently lost cause.

It was the 114th day of the civil war—and to many of Madrid's population, or those sympathizing with the Socialist regime, it was the end of all hopes of an early end to the war.

With Madrid lost, informed quarters said, Premier Largo Caballero would reestablish his government at Valencia, on the south-east coast of Spain, and begin a long-drawn campaign to regain the capital.

Gold fear mounted as the roar of shot and shell neared the Puerta Del Sol—the "Times Square" of Madrid.

Volunteers Battle
Every soldier available was rushed to the capital-side of the river, marshaled to hold the last barrier against the insurgent onslaught.

Socialist officers worked feverishly, attempting to close and reform their wavering lines.

Behind the battle-front, volunteers toiled with back-breaking effort, erecting crude street barricades of torn-up pavement, barrels, sandbags, bricks, blocks of cement and debris from bomb-blasted buildings hit during recent Fascist air raids.

"Press gangs" roamed the streets, seizing any able-bodied men not already at the front.

Populace Flees
Terror of the Moors—fears that the fez-topped legions would pillage the city and inflict merciless carnage—drove many of Madrid's residents to abandon everything in their headlong rush to escape the capital.

Others believed the fall of the capital, already suffering a severe food shortage, would mean starvation once the enemy gained command of the city's dwindling food supply.

Little enough was left. For weeks, the city had been on strict rations. Milk was saved for babies. There was not much of that.

At hotels, restaurants and cafes waiters greeted with shrugs patrons seeking breakfast this morning.

"Nothing," they said. Disease Lurks
The government had requisitioned all cooked food for soldiers fighting at the front.

ARREST NEAR IN SIEVER CASE

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Hand-writing experts pressed investigations today which District Attorney Buren Fitts predicted would result shortly in an arrest in the three-year-old killing of Dr. Leonard Siever, Pasadena dentist.

Recent handwriting experiments, the district attorney said, have convinced the experts that a note received by a woman friend of the popular young dentist shortly after he was found shot to death near his Pasadena office on Dec. 13, 1933, was written by a right-handed person with the left hand and upside down.

"Furthermore, we now have a motive for this man committing the crime," Fitts added.

The note, sent to Mrs. Frances Coen Cooke, divorcee friend of Dr. Siever with whom he was declared to have had an appointment for a social call the night he was slain, enclosed the dentist's strap watch and made a demand for $50,000. It declared the writer knew the identity of the killer.

FIVE WOUNDED IN HOLDUP

CHICAGO. (AP)—Three men and two women were wounded and a holdup man was shot to death when four gunmen, using two automobiles, driven by women, staged a sensational raid on the Pow Wow roadhouse in suburban Franklin Park early today and threw more than 100 patrons into a panic.

The slain robber was identified as a minor hoodlum by the police. His two women companions remained in automobiles with the robbers while the four men entered the tavern, one of them wearing a handkerchief as a mask.

France Creates 'Infantry of Air'

PARIS. (AP)—France, throwing all its energy into the European arms race, today created "the infantry of the air," a new aviation unit of great offensive and defensive strength.

The air ministry disclosed that France, like Russia, would be able to drop whole companies of soldiers behind enemy air lines with parachutes in the event of war.

The "infantry of the air," an official announcement said, would include companies of riflemen and squads of airplanes to transport them behind enemy lines.

Dismissal of 19 TVA Suits Denied

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—U. S. District Judge John J. Gore refused today to dismiss a suit of 19 private power companies against the Tennessee Valley Authority on the claim of the authority that the bill was vague and indefinite and raised no specific issues.

The suit is directed at the TVA power program. Once before, when a question of jurisdiction was raised, Judge Gore refused to dismiss it, holding that his court had proper jurisdiction.

cialist wounded, warned of the imminent danger of disease as well as hunger.

Almost primitive hygiene conditions, he said, created constant threat of a typhoid outbreak.

With the collapse of the Socialist command in Madrid, observers forecast a tremendous advantage for the Fascists from an international standpoint.

(Both Germany and Italy have indicated they would immediately recognize the Fascists as the authentic government of Spain once Madrid falls.)

But although it seemed nothing could halt the insurgent onslaught, it was expected the Socialist militia would put up a stiff rear-guard resistance, slowly retreating through the city before starting the weary 200-mile march to Valencia.

SHERIFF AIDS HOBO BAN

Sheriff Logan Jackson was in Los Angeles today helping to map plans for a 10-county "hobo blockade" to keep transients out of Southern California this winter.

Sheriffs of the other nine counties in the Southland were attending the meeting, called after preliminary conferences at which Supervisor W. C. Jerome represented Orange county.

"The greatest 'bum's rush' in history" was the title tacked to the transient drive today by Los Angeles leaders. Officials plan to establish work camps to which vagrants will be sentenced as a means of cutting down seasonal crime and keeping transients from migrating to Southern California for the winter.

Counties represented in the conference are Los Angeles, Riverside, Kern, Santa Barbara, San Diego, San Bernardino, Imperial, Ventura, San Luis Obispo and Orange.

A resolution asking Governor Frank Merriam to put state agencies on the state border has already been forwarded to Sacramento. It would be similar to the blockade established last winter by Los Angeles Police Chief James E. Davis.

Foothill Center Wins Prize Gong

Foothill Farm center, which in 1935 was awarded a prize at the state convention for being the largest Farm center in California, this week was judged the best center in Orange county in the conduct of its meetings.

Farm bureau directors awarded a gong to the group, which scored 852 of a possible 1000 points based on opening and closing on schedule, reports, program, entertainment, and other phases of the meetings.

Tustin Farm center, winner of the gong in 1935, placed third with 836 points. Garden Grove was second with 848, and West Orange ranked fourth with 819.

spring, when a man identified as a former Detroit gunman staged out of a Seal Beach alley, wounded three times, and leveled down on a Seal Beach police officer.

Craemer was tried for assault with a deadly weapon, convicted and sent to San Quentin.

It never was divulged, however, who picked him up after the shooting and took him to a Long Beach hospital, who paid his bills while there, who engaged City Attorney L. W. Blodgett to attempt his defense, what he was doing in the rear of a well-known Seal Beach gambling spot, or who employed him and for what purpose, in Seal Beach.

Who Shot Him?
It never was brought into testimony who shot Craemer three times, before he attempted to shoot a policeman.

It never was brought into evidence why a prominent Seal Beach citizen, subpoenaed three times, failed to make an appearance in superior court for the Craemer trial.

Indictments probably also will be sought for proprietors of Seal Beach gambling rooms, operating under the guise of "clubs," unmolested.

Today it was freely predicted that more indictments under the corporate securities act for "phony" securities transactions in this county, will be sought through the grand jury.

That persons are operating in this county is acknowledged by officers. And that convictions in open court, without the backing of grand jury indictments, are almost impossible to secure, also is admitted.

Jurors Drawn
An old murder case—that of the Gilbert Cullie slaying in Carbon Canyon seven years ago, will be reopened by the grand jury.

Twenty-nine prospective jurors were drawn today and will report in superior court Nov. 12. Nineteen will be selected from the panel to sit as the investigating body. Those named are:

A. J. McFadden, Charles W. Dyer, Mrs. Jean Metzger, Edwin T. Nelson, Mrs. Elizabeth Kendall and Carl Mock, Santa Ana;

George B. Miller, Cypress; Edna Kraemer and Edward Backs, Placentia; Dr. L. C. Deming and Lee-son F. Pomeroy, Anaheim; H. H. Henshaw, Laguna Beach;

Samuel R. Bowen and Roy Vincent, Huntington Beach; M. J. Johnson and Eugene Fenelon, Newport Beach; J. K. Hermon, Newport road; F. C. Krause, Felix Stein and Ralph Irwin, Fullerton;

John Daneri, San Juan Capistrano; John Adams and Henry Terry, Orange; Frank Walker, Midway City; Henry Pankey, Lemon Heights; Louis Robinson, El Toro; Lawrence Wakeham and W. S. Thompson, Tustin.

4-H CLUBS TO GET AWARDS

Budding young farmers of Orange county will have their big night tonight in the annual achievement program for 4-H clubs, to be held at Fremont school, Anaheim.

Some 300 boys and girls and their parents are planning to be on hand as certificates of merit are issued to club workers who have shown progress during the past year. Clubs will contribute stunts to the program and exhibit the results of their year's work.

Woodbridge Metcalf of the University of California extension service, who represented the United States in boat race events of the Olympic games, will tell of his experiences in Europe, and will award three club charters granted by the United States department of agriculture.

Charters will go to three clubs which have been in successful operation for at least a year. They are the Orange Buds club of Anaheim, the Stitch and Giggie club of Buena Park and the Chat and Sew club of Buena Park.

JAYSEE POETRY WINNERS TOLD

Winners for the best selections appearing in the June edition of the Taven Post, Santa Ana Junior college's literary publication, were Joseph Langland and Anna Marie Page. Thomas H. Glenn, faculty advisor, announced winners today.

Langland will receive the Robert L. Brown poetry prize for the number and quality of the poems he contributed. The "Chronicles of Dalmatia," an article written by Miss Page, was chosen as the best prose contribution, and she will be awarded the Taven Tattler prose prize.

In the poetry division, Elbert Starn's poem "Ramon" was rated second, while honorable mention was given to Helen Grigsby for her poem "Music."

"Hunch," written by Jack Wallace, was chosen second best in the prose class. Ruth Kilbourne's "A Lawyer's Education," Roger Fuller's "The Introvert," and Bill Greshner's "Master Executioner" received honorable mention in the prose field.

Economy Order Issued for WPA

Economy orders which may reduce slightly the amount of supervision on local WPA projects have been issued from national headquarters, Dan Mulherson, county WPA manager, reported today.

Otherwise, Mulherson said, he expects little immediate change in the program here. Projects under way in this county, and other projects applied for meet the requirements of usefulness more fully than those in many districts, he said.

CHARGE PAROLE VIOLATED
Clarence King, 68, route 3, Santa Ana, was booked at the county jail by sheriff's officers last night on parole violation charges. He was originally held last January on drunk driving charges and released before his sentence had expired.

Indian agency records show that Salvador Chappo, Pomo Indian on the Middleton Rancheria, Calif., is 105 years old.

Japanese, 72, With Five-Foot Six-Inch Beard, Is Champ

TOKYO. (AP)—Maojiro Kato's beard, so long he has to be careful not to trip over it, won the national championship today as the longest in Japan.

Kato, a 72-year-old patriarchal hardware dealer, is only five feet one inch tall. His beard is five feet, six inches long. And it causes him plenty of bother.

When Kato goes walking he stuffs the ends of his flowing white whiskers in a specially made handbag to keep them from dragging on the ground.

PENSION LOAD TAKES JUMP

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—Old age assistance requests are becoming a serious problem in California. Col. O. C. Wyman, social security administrator of the state welfare department, declared today.

Applications are increasing 5000 per month. The federal government is sending one of the largest grants ever issued a state to aid in the situation. This sum is $4,477,767, Colonel Wyman said.

California may expect an increase until 1948, according to actuarial figures, said Wyman. The case load for this quarter is $1,660, and is expected to be 100,000 by Jan. 1.

Lowering the residence requirement from 15 to five years has caused the situation, the administrator stated. The shorter time induced many persons in the Middle West and elsewhere to sell their belongings and come West with enough money to last the five years. These, added to natives who are reaching the qualifying age, present a grave problem.

JAYSEE PARLEY HERE DEC. 5

About 40 representatives of various junior colleges in the Southland will meet at Santa Ana Junior college Dec. 5 for an agenda.

Problems common to Southern California junior colleges will be the object of discussion. Requests for problematical questions were sent this week to the colleges by Vic Rowland, Associate Student president of S. A. J. C., who is chairman.

Each college will be represented by four officers each. Colleges to send representatives are Citrus, Chaffey, San Bernardino, Pomona, Riverside, Fullerton, Pasadena, Glendale, Long Beach and Oceanside.

A round table discussion will be held in the morning following registration of delegates. The group will have luncheon at a local cafe, where Dean Calvin Fleet of Santa Ana will act as toastmaster. Discussions will continue in College hall after luncheon.

Vic Rowland is chairman of the agenda, while Betty Lee, Santa Ana J. C. Associated Student secretary, is secretary of the group. Dr. John W. Harbeson of Pasadena is the advisor.

Indian agency records show that Salvador Chappo, Pomo Indian on the Middleton Rancheria, Calif., is 105 years old.

BIG BIRTHDAY PARTY HELD BY SOVIET

MOSCOW. (AP)—Soviet Russia celebrated its 19th birthday today with jubilant demonstrations of progress and with the dire warning that war clouds were gathering over Europe.

Joseph Stalin, general secretary of the Communist party, and most of the high officials of the government and the party reviewed a mass demonstration from the Lenin Tribune.

While hundreds of thousands marched in flag-draped Red Square, the skies were darkened with Soviet war planes roaring overhead.

Industrial triumphs were the central theme of a civilian parade which followed the traditional review of the Red army.

Scores of factories and plants announced they already had fulfilled or were about to fulfill the second five-year plan in three years and 10 months. The manganese mines and Ural coal trusts announced they were far ahead of their production schedules.

Red flags and bunting were festooned throughout the capital to commemorate the day 19 years ago when Nikolai Lenin and his far-from-united little band of Bolsheviks pushed aside the tottering provisional regime of Russia and seized one of the world's largest and richest nations.

No One Blamed In Peckham Death

A coroner's jury in Fullerton yesterday failed to fix blame for Orange county's sixty-sixth fatal traffic accident this year.

An open verdict was returned after an investigation of the death of Charles Peckham, 64, Fullerton. He was fatally injured Wednesday when the car in which he was riding, driven by George Carpenter, 48, Fullerton, was involved in a collision at Fifth street and Harbor boulevard with an auto driven by C. H. King, 52, Huntington Beach.

Scouts Capture Municipal Bowl

More than 300 Boy Scouts from all parts of Orange county took over the Municipal bowl this afternoon and prepared to burn straw, build fires, pitch tents and stand inspection in the county council's annual field day.

Twenty-five patrols had been entered this morning, making a total of 200 boys competing in the events, scheduled to start at 1 p. m. Competition in outdoor events was on a patrol basis, with a silver cup going to the winning group. There are eight boys in a patrol.

SERVES 50 DAYS
Raymond Sparks, 26, Long Beach electrician, was serving a 50-day term in the county jail today on drunk driving charges. He was sent up from Newport Beach.

Tustin 35, San Juan Capistrano 7.

Brea-Olinda 26, Valencia 13.

With the honor of playing Laguna Beach's minor division champions for the Orange league title hinging on the outcome, the well-oiled football machines of Orange and Anaheim high schools will ramble over the Anaheim sod next Friday afternoon.

Thanks to the generalship and hard-running of Larry Timken, the Orange Panthers, tutored by Stewart White and Mike Santa Cruz, eliminated John Ward's fighting crew of Argonauts, 7 to

0, at Garden Grove yesterday, while Dick Glover's Anaheim Colonists were rolling to a 22-0 victory over a lack-luster Huntington

Beach eleven at Huntington Beach.

Brea Trounces Valencia

Brea-Olinda outpunted Valencia 26-23, in a wild-scoring circus at Placentia, and Ralph (Bill) Cole's Tustin Tillers ploughed under Gil Strother's San Juan Capistrano preps, 33 to 7, at Tustin in minor division games. Laguna Beach's champions were idle, as were Ralph Reed's Newport Harbor Tars of the major division.

An exchange of punts turned the tide in favor of Orange in the third quarter of the Panthers' hard-fought fray at Garden

Grove. Back in the shadows of his own goal, Merle Hapes got off a wobbly punt to Garden Grove's 32-yard line. Running plays, featuring the shifty Timken, netted a touchdown. Timken went off-tackle from the 7-yard line to score, and picked up the extra point on a line buck.

Ray Amling, 180-pound tackle, who was reported out for the season with injuries, was a surprise starter in the Orange lineup, and shone with his running mate, Gil Nehrig. Bill Beck looked good in the backfield with Timken.

Brea Scores First

Coach S. S. (Shorty) Smith's Wildcats drew first blood at Placentia. Gordon Baker of Brea crashed over from the 1-yard line, after a clever reverse on the first play following the kick-off had advanced the ball to Valencia's 28.

Runs took it the rest of the way, too. Brea had another touchdown before the game was eight minutes under way. Two passes, Merle Shores to Baker, and Hubert McConnell to Royal Cox turned the trick, Cox scoring as the result of an aerial from Valencia's 22. Baker kicked goal.

Del Jones, Valencia's big threat, rambled 28 yards through the line for the first touchdown of Clarence Bishop's Tigers in the second quarter. Shores of Brea intercepted a pass on his own 30 and footed it 43 yards to the Tiger 27. Runs advanced it to the 4, from where Baker scored off-tackle. Henderson missed the extra point, and the score stood 19-6. Valencia drove 17 yards, Jones scoring from the 1-ft. line for the Tigers' second touchdown in the third period, 19-13. Shores put the game on ice for Brea by running back the kick-off 85 yards to a touchdown, and the Wildcats converted to end the free-scoring fray at 26-13.

Pass Defense Weak

Down at Huntington Beach, Alvin Reboin's Oilers displayed a surprising weakness against passes. Anaheim appeared to have the edge all the way, and played so smoothly the Colonists' 6-0 loss to

Garden Grove remains a puzzle. Lynn Arnett, fullback, passed 20 yards to Ray Ortiz, Jr., end, for Anaheim's first touchdown. Ortiz made a spectacular catch over his head. Rex Whitmore booted a field goal from Huntington Beach's 13-yard marker for a 9-point edge at half-time. Arnett smashed over from the 1-ft. line for the Colonists' final touchdown, after Augie Oliveras, ace quarterback, had scored on a 5-yard plunge in the third.

Paul Francis and Linker in the backfield sparked Tustin to its impressive win over San Juan Capistrano.

Germany to Send 500 to Olympics

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Germany plans to send 500 athletes and 10,000 spectators to the 1940 Olympic Games at Tokyo, Count Michimasa Soyeshima of Japan said here today.

"I am sure," he added, "that the people of the United States, so near a neighbor of ours, will not be outdone."

Gophers 'Unemotional' Coach Bierman Worries for Minnesota

By RICHARD POWERS

MINNEAPOLIS. (AP)—"Unemotional football" is the keynote of the University of Minnesota team, which was upset into the defeated ranks by Northwestern after running up an amazing string of 21 consecutive victories.

But Coach Bernie Bierman, the man behind the triumphant march that stretched through three full seasons and up to Oct. 31 of this campaign, is a worrier of the first order.

Right now Bierman prays plaintively that his Galloping Gophers don't stumble again as they head into the November stretch, with three troublesome rivals ahead.

"Don't forget that we have two Big Ten teams and one with a strong Southwest conference eleven," Bierman warns, after declaring Northwestern deserved to overtake his Gophers on the muddy gridiron at Evanston.

"You can't count those games with Iowa, the University of Texas and Wisconsin in the win column until the scores are posted. I hope we get lucky."

The Gophers this season defeated the Washington Huskies at Seattle in their opener, Nebraska, Michigan and Purdue, then lost to up-rising Northwestern, 0-6, when the "socks" caught up with them. They had weathered 28 games without a loss, but were tied four times in the 1933 campaign.

Pep Talks Out

Minnesota is favored in its three remaining games, but Bierman points out that they were supposed to whip Northwestern—and that last year, heavily favored over Iowa, his men barely pulled out a 13-6 win.

Criticisms have paid tribute to the "poise" of the Gophers along their long victory march, and have called it an outstanding characteristic of the team.

Bierman is an exponent of "unemotional" football, refusing to key his men up before any game and omitting entirely any pep talks at intermission.

Back in 1934 at Pittsburgh, when the Gophers tangled with Jock Sutherland's Panthers, Minnesota trailed, 0-7, with 16 minutes remaining.

Then in seven lightning thrusts they scored twice to win by 13-7. Bierman hadn't even appeared in the Gopher dressing room between halves until they were ready to go back to the gridiron.

He said simply, "you have just 30 minutes left."

Mix Up Plays

The fastest backfield and the heaviest line in Minnesota's history put a heavy load on opposing elevens. A mixture of quick thrusts with laterals on the end, a good passing game and straight power-house plays keeps the defense scattered—and as a result all are effective.

Andy Uram, triple-threat left halfback is one of the fastest men who ever wore the Maroon and Gold. Teaming with Julius Alphonse at right half, behind great blocking, he offers a touchdown threat from any position on the gridiron.

One of the most effective weapons so far has been a thrust by Uram into the line and then a lateral to Alphonse, breaking fast around end.

Bud Wilkinson not only is a brilliant signal caller but is a brutal blocker and pass snatcher. Four fullbacks, Whitman, Kork, Vic Spadaccini, Larry Buhler and George Faust furnish the fullback punch.

Minnesota's line is rated as probably the greatest in Minnesota history—even remembering 1934 and 1935.

Federal Officers Will Not Bother Duck Hunters

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Members of Southern California duck clubs may hunt until Monday without interference by federal officers.

Federal Judge William P. Jones has continued in effect until then an order restraining enforcement of the migratory bird treaty act pending hearing on the question of a permanent injunction.

The act provides that no grain or other bait may be strewn about fields to lure waterfowl. The gun clubs, alleging enforcement of the act would deprive them of their property, sought the injunction.

Gaels Seek Lost Prestige Today

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—St. Mary's Galloping Gaels, slowed to a trot by two eastern whippings, attempt to rebuild their shattered prestige in a football battle here today with University of Idaho's Vandals.

The Gaels have weight advantages of some 100 pounds per man and will line up favored, but Coach Ted Bank promises his Vandals "will give the Gaels a run for it anyway."

Floyd (Toy) Blower Praised by Dyer

High praises for Floyd (Toy) Blower, the University of California's aerial-tossing sensation who captained Santa Ana's 1931 prep champions, were sung today by Braven Dyer, Los Angeles sports authority who devoted his column to the ex-Saint star today. Dyer said:

"One of my favorite football players is Floyd Blower, ace of California's many left halfbacks. I understand Blower is in the dog house with Stub Allison and that the Bear boss does not intend to start Floyd against the Trojans this afternoon. But at the beginning of the season, Mr. Allison said: 'If Blower isn't an All-American I have never seen an All-American.' A year ago I wrote a piece about Blower's ability to get hot in a pinch. This was prior to California's game with U. C. L. A. What did Blower do but pass a run through tackle and then pass to Bob Brittingham for California's second touchdown, thereby clinching the game."

"The boy is a natural athlete and performs with the grace and ease of a stylist. I can't understand what has happened to him this year, but it is a cinch he will get hot again some afternoon. Perhaps today is the day—in which case the Trojans are doomed to be on their guard."

"Blower entered California from Santa Ana High school where he made athletic history by winning an even dozen letters. He ran the high hurdles, tossed the discus and took part in the pole vault. He pitched for the baseball team. He played running guard in basketball and was a riot on the gridiron. His team won the Southern championship when he was captain in his senior year. Graduating in 1932, Blower decided to enroll at Stanford, sent in his credentials and was accepted. However, during the summer he took a trip to Berkeley and spent a day on the California campus. He never got as far as Stanford after this. Floyd had a brother James at California in 1924. Although a star high school footballer, James did not try football at Berkeley because of a heavy pre-medical course.

"Floyd captained the unbeaten 1932 California frosh team and was the big gun of the 1933 varsity. Late in the season he was badly injured and this kept him out of football during 1934. This season he came back, apparently better than ever, only to bog down as the campaign waxed warm. At that, his 1935 record shows he has made four yards per play against all types of competition.

"Blower has been married one year this month, is 22 years of age and now weighs 180 pounds. He and Ambrose Schindler will be easy to tab today as they wear the same digits on their back, No. 24."

Brick Dust

Here and There With
The Journal's
Rambling County Editor
By L. N. (BRICK) GAINES

MY GOOD friend and fellow pen-pusher, Uncle Sam Meyer, Newport publisher, was at home when I called on him yesterday. Unfortunately for him!

I've been threatening to drop in on Sam and "take" him for a free cigar for months. I finally got around to him, and he was so thoroughly sold on the idea after my campaign that he trotted out of his office with two cigars.

And he confessed that he'd been planning to stop in the office and leave me a couple of packages. I'll be home, next time!

And then, before I got a chance to thank him for the free smoke, he galloped off somewhere with Paul Palmer, Lido Islander. Maybe this'll thank him!

Here's a letter to Dan Mulheron, of the San Clemente Mulherons:

"Dear Dan: I really wasn't picking on you in yesterday's paper. That hodge-podge on the county page wasn't my fault. I wasn't referring to you as a part of a wharf, or anything like that. Merely an error in composition, or something!"

To the untitled, I might explain that someone fumbled one, and left part of Thursday's banner line on Friday's page, and the result looked like a cross between Mulheron, scrambled eggs and a wharf at Laguna.

I'm laughing so that I'm like to bust! I've just borrowed a pair of scissors and clipped another of Editor Verne Beck's sermons for little chillions. The best one yet—even better than the skunk bones and coconut. Or better than the minister's nightshirt.

So, with no more than a word of apology to Editor Beck for swiping, again, his sermon, I'll let him continue!

Little chillions, do you live right? Do you always stay put where your mama tells you to stay, while she goes about tending to her business? If you don't, someday much woe will come to you. Get your hands outta the jam so we can tell you how to keep out of bigger jams later. It's like this, little chillions. Once upon a time there was a nice little girl that was so little her mama didn't think she could depend on. But you can never depend on one of that kind of folk, chillions, even if she is a little baby, a swing baby, or a gramma. This'n was so little she couldn't walk awfully far in a day. But one time she figured she was old enough to see the world, so she started out. She was dressed for house affairs only. Today we would call it streamline comfort for the home, but it isn't recommended above two years old. This little lady wobbled up to the corner. My, but it was a big world. She went down an alley until she came to a bunch of strange animals that happened to be chickens in a pen. They might as well have been bears or giraffes or camels to her, but she wanted to go in and play with them. Like all ladies do, she started to back in through a hole in the fence, but got stuck. Half or her was in and half was out. The half that was out couldn't see the chickens. The chickens had probably never seen an animal like that either, so they looked closer, and one took a peck at it. Another one stuck its head through the crack and took a peck at her toes. Some of the other chickens came a-runnin' and took some pecks at what was protruding through the fence, and others pecked at the toes, and everything they could reach. Well, what would you do, little chillions, if you were stuck in a fence and were getting pecked and pecked, and couldn't make 'em stop? Course you would yell and cry. That's what this nice little girl did, and she did such a good job all the neighbors came for a look, and they had to chase the chickens away, because they had made a game out of it, and had pecked most of the skin off, and the neighbors had to kick a board off the fence to get her loose. So they took her home, and her mama made her lie on her stomach three whole days because she couldn't sit, and she couldn't stand, 'cause her feet were full of peck holes, too. So little chillions, if you feel a hankerin' to go out into the wide world and your mama tells you not to, don't go, at least not until you've got something on that you can tuck your shirt in, and be sure your shirt is plenty long enough, 'cause maybe there won't be any nice neighbor ladies to come and kick out a board when you get stuck and the chickens begin peckin' away at you. You little boy chillions should remember this, especially, 'cause a shirt without a tail sometime might make you blush, and folks will point their fingers at you and whisper behind your back that you are a mugwump.

ORANGE.—Almost 500 fathers and sons attended three banquets given in their honor Friday night at the Presbyterian, Christian and Methodist churches.

At the Presbyterian church 240 men and boys heard Bill Henry, sports editor of the Los Angeles Times, tell of the 1936 Olympic games at Berlin. He spoke of their value from the point of view of racial equality, stating that since the games Germany has had less to say about Aryan-Nordic supremacy.

Tom Flippin was master of ceremonies and introduced the speaker. Two solos were sung by Fred Bewley, accompanied by Percy Green. The pastor, Dr. Robert B. McAulay, gave the invocation.

Art Sipherd was master of ceremonies at the banquet at the Methodist church, attended by 150 fathers and sons. A whistling solo and humorous vocal solo were given by John Jones, Santa Ana, and quartet composed of Phil Her-ington, Onnie Saunders, Kenneth Markham and George Coissart sang, accompanied by Jennie Winget. Vernon Shippee proposed the toast to the sons, and the toast to the fathers was given by his son, Billy Shippee. The speaker, Fred Hanson, regional secretary of the Y. M. C. A., told of the beginning of father-son events in 1907, at a Y. M. C. A. in Providence, R. I. He also urged greater partnership between dads and their boys.

At the Christian church, Dr. W. C. Cherverton, pastor of the First Christian church, Whittier, also spoke on a father-son partnership. Clayton Ferrin was toastmaster and songs were led by E. Wilbur. During the evening a flying squadron, which included Mayor A. C. Boice, Chief of Police George H. Franzen, Fire Chief A. L. Tomblin, H. D. Nichols, W. S. Lentz, president of the Lions club, Don Guldage, Ralph Hull and J. B. Wilbur, made visits to each banquet, accompanied by a police motorcycle escort.

BILL POWELL, MYRNA LOY STARRED

35 Famous Figures of Stage Honored in Big Production

Thirty-five famous stars, past and present, are honored in one way or another in "The Great Ziegfeld," in which William Powell plays the great impresario, with Myrna Loy as Billie Burke, and Louise Rainer as Anna Held. The picture, hailed as the "Sensation of the Century," opened at the Fox West Coast theater yesterday for a full week's engagement.

Since it is impossible to place all the former stage stars in the picture, the director devised novel methods in which to pay tribute to the great names of the theater.

A few appear as themselves in the picture. Among these are Fannie Brice, one of the greatest comedienne of the Broadway stage; Harriet Hooton, celebrated danseuse; and Ray Bolger, nicknamed "Rubber Legs" because of his eccentric dancing.

Those who appear through impersonators include Anna Held, Sandow, Bert Williams, Nat Wills, Lew Dockstader, Will Rogers, Eddie Cantor, the Fairbanks Twins, Joseph Urban and Irving Berlin. Others honored by musical numbers include George White, John Steele, Eddie Cantor and Van & Schenck.

Tribute is paid to Henry Miller, William Faversham, May Robson, Lillian Russell, Marie Dressler, Richard Mansfield and James A. Herne in theater programs flashed on the screen.

A complete dress rehearsal, similar to the famous Ziegfeld night-before-the-premiere presentations, was accorded each musical number in "The Great Ziegfeld."

HEPBURN FILM COMING SOON

Katherine Hepburn presents a finely drawn portrait of a woman who rebels against Victorian restrictions, and, after carving a career for herself, reverts to a mother's instinct for sacrifice and a craving for love in "A Woman Rebels," which has been booked by Manager Lester J. Fountain for the Fox West Coast theater for Friday, Nov. 13.

"A Woman Rebels" is the story of a girl who resents her father's domination of every move, who becomes involved with a young man the night of her sister's wedding, but finds a way out of her difficulties when her sister is fatally injured as news is brought of her husband's death on a naval ship. She brings up her own child as her sister's.

Miss Hepburn becomes the editor of a woman's magazine, but finds success means nothing when her daughter falls in love with her half-brother. The daughter flaunts her mother when she forbids her romance. Miss Hepburn becomes involved in a divorce scandal, but Herbert Marshall steps in and clears the situation by telling the daughter who her mother is.

Chevrolets for 1937 Are Announced Here

B. J. MacMullen, local Chevrolet dealer, points with pride to the new 1937 Chevrolets, which have just been put on display. Above is one of the new models, the Chevrolet Master coach.

Although the improvements in the 1937 Chevrolets extend through engine and chassis, it is in the new bodies by Fisher that they will be most immediately obvious, for the new models are strikingly different in appearance, whether viewed from the front, from the side, or from the rear, as shown at the showrooms of B. J. MacMullen, at First and Sycamore streets.

Several factors contribute to the outstanding impression, which is one of fleetness and grace. One of these is the distinctive treatment which Chevrolet designates as "diamond crown streamline styling." The side flaps of the hood are shorter than heretofore, and the "ledge" on which they rest, between the front fender and the engine compartment, is carried back as a horizontal offset gradually diminishing toward the rear, until it merges into the door panel.

Car Is Lower

The impression of low-slung fleetness is further accentuated by the slope of the windshield and of the rear-end panel, both of which are inclined more sharply than before. The fact that the car is lower also contributes to the generally streamlined effect.

The superiority of the new bodies goes deeper, however, than impressions, as a glance at their structure and their dimensions will reveal. They are stronger, roomier, and more comfortable, as well as better looking. They embody the new unit construction, in which solid steel turret top, steel side panels, steel cowl assembly and steel floor are welded into a single unit, permanently joined by rivets, bolts, rivets or screw. Even the doors are all of steel.

They are also roomier. The sides of the car are less curved than in 1936, with the result that the body is almost five inches wider at the floor in the front compartment, 1½ inches wider at the windshield level, and two inches wider across the front seat between the doors. The floor is 2-1½ inches lower than in previous models, due to the use of hypoid gears and box-girder frame.

New Models Safer

From the standpoint of safety, too, Chevrolet's new bodies represent a great advance. They are the successful culmination of the first attempt thus far made to create a body which was structurally all of steel. Heretofore, the inner body framework has been called on to carry the burden, but in the 1937 models, the outer panels become a major structural factor too. The strength of the body is greatly increased by welding these panels to the inner structure and to the under-body, and tendency toward weaving or swaying is also greatly reduced. Moreover, the strength is a permanent thing, since all joints are welded. No nails, screws, bolts, or rivets are used.

Capping the whole sturdy structure is the improved solid steel turret top, in which a steel rail now replaces the wood roof rail of 1936. This rail is a part of the

LATEST GABLE STATE SHOWS FILM IS AT FIRST RUN FEATURE

"Cain and Mabel," starring Clark Gable and Marion Davies, opened at the Fox Broadway theater today in one of the most entertaining pictures that has been seen here in some time.

One of the most beautiful and tuneful musical numbers ever filmed in a motion picture, called "A Thousand Love Songs," gives Miss Davies a chance to wear six costumes.

Sammy White, sensational New York eccentric dancing comedian, has the role of dancing partner to Miss Davies. White recently completed an assignment in "Show Boat" in which he played the same role he did in Ziegfeld's production of "Edna Ferber's favorite."

"Wild Brian Kent" is the second picture on the double bill. It is the story of a villain who thinks up more than the usual amount of dirty dodges to get a ranch away from a widow. Ralph Bellamy, a playboy-wastrel, is abandoned in the cattle belt by a polo team that is disgusted and tired of taking IOU's for gambling debts. His willingness to take chances lands him with a broken head at a ranch which two lone women are trying to keep from the grasp of Stanley Andrews, the villain. Before Andrews is marched off to his well-deserved incarceration, he gets the mortgage by trickery, gives the cattle the deadly anthrax and sets fire to a wheat field.

Hollywood Turf Board Confers With Governor

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—The Hollywood Turf club, which carried its protest over failure to obtain a Southern California race track permit directly to Gov. Frank F. Merriam, was preparing today a formal report for the state executive.

Representatives conferred with the governor for nearly an hour yesterday, after which the executive announced he had instructed the delegation to put their complaint in writing.

The Turf club was given a permit for a racing plant at Culver City, but property owner protests forced them to move the site to Inglewood. The racing commission refused to issue a permit for the new location.

The delegation included Norman Church, M. I. Diggs, Claude Andrews, Harry Maddux and J. A. Murphy.

Defer Mandamus Action Against San Clemente

A scheduled hearing on the mandamus action brought by the Capitol company of California against the city of San Clemente to test the Spanish Village's unique building ordinance was postponed yesterday to Nov. 13.

The Capitol company is suing to force issuance of two building permits to it for construction of houses not complying with the San Clemente ordinance which specifies all houses and buildings in the city must be a Spanish type.

The ordinance was adopted when the city was founded seven years ago by Ole Hanson, up to that time mayor of Seattle. This is its first court test.

Asks $7500 for Permanent Scars

Charging injuries she sustained in a traffic crash June 20 have left permanent scars, Dorothea Cate, 17, brought suit yesterday in superior court against the Shell Oil company and E. H. Rhodes, driver of a Shell truck, for $7500.

She said the injuries were incurred when the car in which she was a passenger collided with the oil truck driven by Rhodes at the intersection of East Common.

Diplomacy Will Be Forum Topic

Quanton will discuss the League of Nations and the peace treaties. He will analyze territorial problems and national policies of the countries involved. The consequences of Fascism and the Civil war in Spain will be discussed.

inner steel framework, as are the U-shaped steel roof bows supporting the top itself.

In addition to the many body improvements already described, Chevrolet announces safety plate glass all around, on all models, at no extra charge.

STATE SHOWS FIRST RUN FEATURE

Presenting a first-run picture and another great drama on a big double bill, the State theater offers "End of the Trail" and "I Married a Doctor" for a two-day engagement beginning Sunday.

"End of the Trail" stars Jack Holt in a story of Roosevelt's Rough Riders and the winning of the west. Holt and his buddy go through the Spanish-American war together, but are on opposite sides of the law when they go out West.

Guinn Williams plays the role of his buddy, while Louise Henry is the woman they both love. Douglas Dumbrille is the villain of the story.

Pat O'Brien and Josephine Hutchinson are co-starred in "I Married a Doctor," which is based on Sinclair Lewis' famous novel, "Main Street."

It is the story of a small town where everybody knows everybody else's business, and when the town's doctor brings home a bride from the city, the townspeople find that she doesn't fit into the picture and make life miserable for her.

In the cast are Ross Alexander, Guy Kibbee, Louise Fazenda, Robert Barrat and others.

The State theater management recently announced a new policy of bargain prices.

TIBBETT FILM IS BOOKED

Lawrence Tibbett, singing three new songs headed for the nation's hit list, cast against a background of riotous comedy provided by Gregory Ratoff and Arthur Treacher and a rough-house romance with Wendy Barrie, will arrive in Santa Ana in the near future. Tibbett is coming in his latest picture, "Under Your Spell."

The new songs are "Under Your Spell," "My Little Mule Wagon," and "Amigo."

In a role very closely paralleling real life, the world-famous baritone is cast as a popular singer, kept so busy by his manager, Ratoff, that his every moment is filled with a continual round of engagements, endorsements and publicity stunts.

Ratoff gets away with murder (of the English language), but finally his protégé has enough of the super-ultra-salesmanship and flees out West to resume his former occupation as cowboy. Pursuing Tibbett to the wide open spaces is Wendy Barrie, as a boldly former society girl who loses her heart on a mountain top and turns romantic.

BEAR POLOISTS LOSE

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—U. C. L. A.'s water poloists today boasted the first victory of the season over the University of California men. The heretofore undefeated Berkeley team was submerged last night by a 4 to 3 score in a game that required two overtime periods.

Irvin Cobb, Jane Withers in 'Pepper'

Above are pictured Irvin S. Cobb and Jane Withers who are co-starred in "Pepper," which opens Sunday at Walker's theater for a three-day engagement.

BIG ARMISTICE DAY SHOW PLANNED AT BROADWAY

Something decidedly different in pictures with music comes to the Fox Broadway theater on Armistice day when Pickford Lasky's "The Gay Desperado" begins an engagement with Nino Martini, great singing star of radio, opera and films, in the title role, and Ida Lupino and Leo Carrillo in supporting parts.

A colorful romance laid below the Rio Grande, "The Gay Desperado" discards the usual backstage plot formula for pictures featuring famous songbirds and presents a thrill-packed film story.

Martini is said to give a great performance as the swashbuckling Chivo, whose voice causes him to be kidnapped by a Mexican bandit chieftain (Carrillo), who adopts American gangster methods, but is really a sentimental, music-loving fellow at heart.

Carrillo also kidnaps an American millionaire's weakling son, played by James Blakeley, and his sweetheart, Ida Lupino. Determined to do the right thing, Carrillo calls in his idol of the American underworld, Public Enemy No. 3, to handle ransom negotiations.

Martini and Lupino fall in love and he manages to escape and effect the release of Blakeley through a radio plea directed

City Tunnels of MWD Excavated

Excavation of tri-city tunnels of the Metropolitan Water district aqueduct, which runs through Pasadena, Los Angeles, and Glendale, has been completed, according to a report on file in the office of General Manager F. E. Weymouth.

The two tunnels, 9709 feet in length, are known officially as the San Rafael tunnels Nos. 1 and 2, and are a part of the distributing system of the Colorado river aqueduct.

CRAIG'S WIFE AT WALKER'S SUNDAY

Hailed as one of the most dramatic of this season's production, "Craig's Wife" is coming to Walker's theater Sunday for a three-day engagement. It stars Rosalind Russell and John Boles.

"Craig's Wife," a Pulitzer prize play, is the story of a woman who wanted a home for herself alone, and coldly marries a man to get one. She keeps out all his friends and relatives, and deserts his side when he is accused of a murder of which he is innocent. He finally realizes her scheme, and leaves her, alone with her home—just a house empty of all love.

Miss Russell is the scheming wife, Boles the husband. Others prominent in the cast are Billie Burke, Jane Darwell, Dorothy Wilson, Alma Kruger, Thomas Mitchell, Robert Allen and Raymond Walburn.

Also on the big double bill is the comedy, "Pepper," starring Jane Withers. With her in the cast are Irvin S. Cobb, Slim Summerville, Dean Jagger and Muriel Robert.

"Pepper" is the story of a street urchin who goes to great lengths to raise rent money for a poor woman being evicted from her house. In raising it she becomes acquainted with a wealthy man, and manages later to prevent the man's daughter from marrying a fake baron.

A newsreel rounds out the program at Walker's Theater, which has established the policy of offering big shows at popular prices.

He would run a continuous show on these two pictures on Armistice day, the doors opening for the first show at noon, Wednesday.

Mrs. Stanley Clem and Daughter Bid Farewell to Friends at Afternoon Tea

Wedding in Laguna Today

Eggshell taffeta fashioned the lovely wedding dress in which Miss Charlene Lowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jo Lowell of 926 North Olive street, was to be married at 4 o'clock this afternoon in St. Mary's Episcopal church at Laguna Beach.

The ceremony, in which she was to become the bride of Britton Bowker, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Bowker of Los Angeles was to be performed by the Rev. Mr. R. M. Hogarth, rector of the Laguna church, with about fifty relatives and close friends in attendance.

For the quarter hour before the ceremony, the church organist had arranged a prelude of wedding songs, concluding with the Lohengrin wedding march by Wagner for entrance of the bridal party.

Miss Lowell had chosen her sister, Mrs. DeRoy Dickson, as her matron of honor, and Miss Gene Chapman of Ontario, as maid of honor.

Period Dresses
Dresses of the bride and her two attendants were in quaint period design, the bride's with a full skirt banded with three rows of velvet ribbon at the floorline and its fitted bodice buttoning from neck to waistline. Long, tight sleeves puffed at the shoulders, and a little turn-down collar created interest at the neckline. A fingertip length veil of tulle, gathered into a wreath of orange blossoms across her dark hair, gave the finishing touch to the costume, and the bride planned to carry a point lace handkerchief which her mother and her sister had both carried at their weddings. Her bouquet was a colonial one of yellow roses.

In Gold and Blue
In pretty contrast to the eggshell tone of the bridal dress were the gowns of the matron and maid of honor, the former wearing gold taffeta with little puff sleeves and carrying Talisman roses and chrysanthemums shaded from bronze to gold, and Miss Chapman blue taffeta, with the same combination of flowers. Both bouquets were in colonial design.

A Russel Pence of Los Angeles was chosen by Mr. Bowker as best man, and Robert Kinsley and Joe Hall as ushers. The bride's father was to give her in marriage.

As a colorful background for the wedding dresses, large baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums were arranged at the front of the church and along the chancel rail.

Hotel Reception
After the ceremony, the guests were to be invited to the Hotel Laguna for a formal reception in the sunroom, where the bride was to cut her wedding cake at a prettily appointed table. Mothers of the bride and bridegroom were to assist at the reception, Mrs. Lowell wearing green metallic crepe with a gardenia corsage.

Later, changing to a gray tweed, three-piece suit with red accessories, the bride was to depart with her new husband for a honeymoon in and around Palm Springs. At the end of the trip, they will go to Tujunga to make their home.

A native of Santa Ana, the bride received part of her early schooling here and was then graduated from the University of Arizona, where she met her future husband. She was a member of Delta Gamma sorority on the college campus, and is affiliated here with Sigma Theta.

The bridegroom, a graduate of the University of Southern California, took his law course at the University of Arizona law school and is now in the legal department of the state building and loan commissioner. He is a member of a prominent Los Angeles family.

CONCLUDE TRIP INTO THE NORTH

Mrs. Lena G. Hewitt of 1702 Spurgeon street and her mother, Mrs. J. H. Gulick, and the former's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Huntley of Tustin, have returned from motor trip into the northern part of the state, on which they were accompanied by Mrs. George Insley of Altadena, aunt of Mrs. Hewitt.

They visited three aunts of the latter, Misses Hattie and Olive Gulick and Mrs. Sadie Humeson, in Porterville, and an old school friend, Mrs. Mary Burke, in Hollister. On their way home, they went around the Monterey peninsula.

FIFTH HOUSEHOLD GROUP
C. W. Hippard, local furniture salesman, will speak on "Selection of Practical and Decorative Home Furnishings" when he addresses the fifth household economics section of Ebells Tuesday at the clubhouse. A 12 o'clock luncheon will precede the meeting, with Miss Clara Richards and Miss Marshall, and N. E. Hilton as co-hostesses, and all who cannot attend are asked to notify Miss Richards, phone 3345-W.

PARTIES FOR SOUTH BEND VISITOR

Mrs. John J. Vernon entertained a new contract club this week at a dessert bridge party in her home on Santiago, using the Thanks-giving motif in flowers and appointments, and awarding prizes at the close to Mrs. Herbert Krahling, first, and Mrs. F. A. Burkett, second.

Guests included her sister and house guest, Mrs. Charles Russell of South Bend, Ind., Mrs. S. A. Jones, Mrs. Jesse Elliott, Mrs. Don Mozely, and Miss Clara Richards, and the hostess.

On Thursday, Mrs. Vernon and her sister were guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. J. B. Nelson at her home in Long Beach, a former Indiana friend of both. A three-course luncheon with Thanksgiving appointments was enjoyed by the Santa Anans and ten Long Beach friends, and bridge followed, Mrs. Russell receiving a lovely guest award at the close.

Carrying the fall motif into her luncheon, Mrs. Nelson arranged the pineapple of her salad to represent an Indian teepee, with little red apple pumpkins at the side.

Mrs. Edna Smith of the Tuberculosis association talked to members of Girls' Junior Ebells yesterday at their tea program at the home of Miss Betty Lou Marble on Greenwood, where Miss Marble, Miss Dolly Raitt, and Miss Jean McKamy presided as co-hostesses.

Following her interesting talk, the speaker showed a film from the association.

Miss Carol Rogers was taken in as a new member, and Mrs. C. J. Cogan, Mrs. E. L. McKamy, Mrs. Emmett Raitt, and Mrs. David Howell were welcomed as guests. Mrs. Emrys White, the club advisor, and Mrs. Fred Rowland, president of Senior Ebells, were both present.

The next meeting will be November 20 at the home of Miss Patsy Miller, 1809 Heliotrope Drive, with Miss Carolyn Wells as co-hostess.

These and other lovely autumn flowers graced the living room and dining room, with fall tapers further enhancing the dinner table where a delicious menu preceded the evening's contract.

Couple's scores were added to determine the winner of the joint prize, which went to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nisson.

Members present were Mr. and Mrs. Loyal King, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Westover, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nisson, Mr. and Mrs. William Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Orlan Robertson and the Newcombs.

CHAT AWHILE WITH BETTY... By Betty Cox

What's in a name? We took up that subject several weeks ago and discovered there was a lot more in names than showed on the surface.

Then, this week, along comes a name that hasn't as much in it as it used to have—Shuhart.

Until recently, they were the Orville Schuchards; and then, just as I learned to spell it, they dropped all those extra letters in favor of more simplified spelling—Shuhart.

And speaking of names, two more Santa Ana misses are changing their today in wedding ceremonies, Charlene Lowell substituting Bowker for her last name this afternoon and Jeannette Lewis is changing Lewis to Ainsworth tonight.

On Armistice day—next Wednesday—Martha Wallingford will become Mrs. George Preble. More wedding bells are scheduled for the sixteenth, the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth, and December and the Christmas season are being chosen by still more brides.

Noted News Analyst Coming

A volume of words—as well as several volumes of interesting information—can be expected from H. V. Kaltenborn, Columbia Broadcasting System's "ace broadcaster," when he speaks before Santa Ana Ebells club next Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the clubhouse.

For Mr. Kaltenborn's vocabulary, said to be second in size to that of Irvin S. Cobb, the largest in the country, numbers nine thousand words.

With Columbia for 15 years, the noted news analyst and commentator has done broadcasting in many parts of the world, returning only this fall from a summer spent in England, France and Spain.

In the latter country, he was accredited to both armies as a war correspondent, contacting both sides in the war zone and going back to France to broadcast his findings. He was also a prominent figure at the Geneva conference and spent a period of broadcasting in London. Adolf Hitler, Eamon de Valera were among the noted personages he interviewed while watching the pageantry of Europe this summer.

The voice that has been heard "round the world and the vocabulary of 9000 words will be combined into a talk entitled "We Look at the World" for the local Ebells members and their husbands, the latter invited this time as honored guests. With this general topic, Mr. Kaltenborn will bring to his Santa Ana audience a comprehensive view of current happenings all over the world.

HOSTESS TRIO ENTERTAINS AT DESSERT BRIDGE

HOOVER P. T. A. HEARS MINISTER FROM FULLERTON

Hoover School Parent-Teacher association heard an interesting talk on "The Home, the Most Important Institution in Building Good Citizens," when the Rev. Mr. Graham C. Hunter of the Fullerton First Presbyterian church addressed that group at its Thursday meeting.

Third graders of Miss Frances Knudson presented delightful Indian dances and songs and little talks on their Indian classwork, and a gift was presented by the P. T. A. to Miss Knudson, who is soon to be married.

Hostesses for the tea hour following were the Mesdames Ed Howard, R. R. Ross, C. F. Leithoff, R. D. Smiley, and teachers presided at the small tables.

CHURCH WOMEN MEET

The Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will have its regular Wednesday meeting on Armistice Day, but the hour has been advanced to 4:30 p. m. it was announced today.

SCAVENGER HUNT LEADS PARTY GUESTS AFAR

Junior college department of the Methodist church had an interesting time Thursday evening when, they, with their leader, Mrs. Marie Fowler, gathered at the Z. B. West home, 1210 North Ross street.

Here, they received instructions of what to find in a scavenger hunt, and set out in groups of four, their search taking them all over town. Dean Howell's group came in first with their booty, and June Corry's team second, following which the remainder of the evening was spent at monopoly.

Refreshments were served at the close, Mrs. Fowler assisting Mrs. West in serving at small tables. Enjoying the evening were Betty West, daughter of the home, who had decorated the rooms with bright autumn flowers; Norman Cladwell, Phyllis Hieske, Clifford Lee, Dean Howell, June Corry, Maxine Rowell, Joy Townsley, Ruth Budd, Marjorie Bradley, Herbert Lyman, Fred Pinkston, Evelyn Witt, Mildred McCollough and John Matthews.

Kiwanis Club Is Genial Host

Cornstalks and pumpkins made a pretty harvest setting in the Ebells clubhouse last night for the Kiwanis club's big annual card party at which twenty tables of contract and auction bridge were in play.

While the guests assembled, an instrumental trio played, and at the close of the card games a prize was awarded to high score holder at each table.

Refreshments served at the end of the evening carried out the same autumn motif in appointments as the tallies and room decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Raddant headed the committee for the affair, and were assisted by Messrs. and Mesdames E. F. Elfstrom, W. W. Woods, Claude Knox, and W. W. Woods. Assisting in serving were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Scouler and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Mitchell.

Daughter And Mother Are Radio Roundup Hostesses

Autumn pervaded the spacious rooms of the George Briggs home at 644 North Broadway yesterday when Mrs. Briggs and her daughter, Mrs. Howard Timmons, two of the city's most delightful hostesses, entertained a group of friends at a bridge luncheon.

Chrysanthemums in all the gorgeous shades of yellow and rust met the eyes from every vantage point, and particularly beautiful was the seasonal ensemble of golden mums, dahlias and gladioli sent by Mrs. C. E. Moore.

A striking effect was achieved in the dining room by the use of brilliant-hued gourds as a centerpiece, surrounded by bright-colored autumn leaves, the latter the gift of Mrs. A. G. Flagg.

Small bowls of tiny pompon chrysanthemums centered the individual tables where luncheon was served and contract played later. Prizes were awarded at each table.

Guests of the popular hostess-duo were the Mesdames Sam Nau, Adam Zaiser, A. J. Cruickshank, C. A. Vance, Sherman Stevens, Clare Johnson, D. A. Harwood, Sarah J. Haddon, Margaret E. Borgmeyer, J. S. Stewart, Loyal King, J. F. Burke, Charles Kent, Park Roper, A. G. Flagg, Robert Mize, Harry Westover, H. B. Rapp, Mortimer Plum, Mark Lacy, J. D. ## MISSIONARY WORKERS END VISIT HERE

Interesting visitors in the city this week have been Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell, former Santa Anans who have spent a number of years in the mission fields of Africa and Ethiopia.

While in the Southland, they have been giving lectures on their experiences abroad, talking in 13 United Presbyterian churches, including the Santa Ana one, and are now on the way north to Grand View, Wash., for a Transfiguring reunion with their two children and Mrs. Russell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chase.

Many of their friends entertained them while here, Dr. and Mrs. Emmett Raitt presiding as hosts at an informal dinner for them one evening. Other guests included Col. and Mrs. S. H. Finley and the Misses Ellen, Dorothy and Marjorie Raitt, daughters of the home.

GUSTLINS HOSTS AT DINNER

Before the MacDowell League concert Thursday evening at the Gustlin studio, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gustlin entertained the guest artist of the evening, Homer Simmons, and his niece, who accompanied him, at dinner in their home. Their other guests were Mrs. Ella Campau, former personal friend of MacDowell, the composer; Mrs. Natalie Alden Putnam, president of the Los Angeles MacDowell League; Mrs. Marjorie D. ## Story of the Bible Told in Pictures

JESUS BAPTIZED BY JOHN THE BAPTIST—"Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wrath, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under."—Matthew 2:16. After the massacre of the innocents, and the death of Herod, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in Egypt and told him to take Mary and the child, Jesus, into Israel. "And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene."—Matthew 2:23. "And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him."—Luke 2:40. All four Gospels record the ministry of John the Baptist. Matthew, Mark and Luke record that baptisms were made by the evangelist, and describe the baptism of Jesus. "Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased."—Luke 3:21-22. This illustration is from Merian's story of the Bible in pictures, engraved in 1625-1630.

ASSYRIAN TO TELL ABOUT MODERN PALESTINE

Pleads for Peace

KATHLEEN NORRIS

Mrs. Kathleen Norris, well known novelist of San Francisco, is to be one of the speakers at the Armistice peace meeting next Tuesday night at the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Norris is a native daughter of California. She was born in San Francisco and was educated largely by private teachers and parents. She did take a special course at the University of California.

Her first story appeared in 1911 and since that time she has published a large number of books and short stories.

Mrs. Norris made her first address in behalf of peace in Philadelphia, in April of this year. She spoke at that meeting in company with the Right Hon. George Lansbury, M. P., of London. Since that meeting she has spoken many times. Her lectures show that she is very much concerned about the peace situation and is eager to do her bit in this cause. She is a member of the Catholic church.

At a recent meeting in Long Beach, where Mrs. Norris spoke, 1000 people were turned away, unable to get into the auditorium to hear her. It is anticipated that Santa Ana people will be equally eager to hear her next Tuesday night.

Speaking on the platform with Mrs. Norris will be Dr. Albert D. Stauffer, of Claremont. Dr. Stauffer is the minister of the only church at that educational center. He ministers to a great company of students and teachers as well as to the business and professional members of the community. He has just returned from a trip around the world and will have some observations on the world situation to report.

HINDU TO TALK HERE SUNDAY

Bishop E. E. Driver, a converted Hindu, will preach at both morning and evening services at the Four Square church tomorrow. Bishop Driver is chairman of the general council of the Church of God in Christ, and has developed a great ministerial following.

He will be introduced by the Rev. W. C. Parham and the Rev. Alice Parham, co-pastors of the church. The public is invited.

Dr. Fry Will Be Spurgeon Speaker

The evening services at the Spurgeon Memorial Methodist church tomorrow will feature an address by Dr. J. A. B. Fry, presiding elder of the Los Angeles district.

After his sermon the quarterly conference of the church will be held. Special music at the evening service will include a trumpet solo by Milton Asher, accompanied by Audrey Barnes, and Smallwood's anthem, "Praised be the Lord Daily."

By GLENN L. THORNE

Two weeks ago we left Paul at Corinth. Since then he has returned to Antioch and is now on his third missionary journey. This week we find him at Ephesus. Paul was a fearless and successful warrior. In his commandments to the Christian warrior, in this week's lesson, to put on the whole armor of God, Paul itemizes the parts of the armor as the breastplate of righteousness; the shoes of gospel peace; the shield of faith; the helmet of salvation; the sword of the spirit; with the loins gird with truth.

Let's see. There are shoes for the feet, a girdle for the loins, a shield for the right hand, and a helmet for the head. Notice there is no protection for the back. The Christian is not expected to turn his back to the enemy. As long as he faces the enemies' line, there are no points in the armor sufficient to allow a vulnerable spot to the one who constantly maintains his integrity.

A Christian fight? Most certainly! And what was the old song we used to sing: "Sure, I Must Fight if I Would Win."

ABBEY PLANS ARMISTICE PROGRAM

A program commemorating Armistice day will be presented at Melrose abbey Sunday afternoon by members of the Church of the Four Square Gospel of Santa Ana under the direction of Rev. Alice Wilson Parham, co-pastor of the Santa Ana church. The Rev. W. C. Parham, pastor, will deliver a sermonette, taking "Armistice" as subject. The Rev. Harry B. Miller will offer the invocation. David Craighead will act as organist and accompanist.

A varied program will be given, consisting of numbers by a ladies' trio, a mixed quartet, trumpet solo and accordion duet, with numerous special vocal solos. The choir of 20 voices will sing one number, "America The Beautiful" (Ward).

Musical Memory Hour programs are held in the chapel of Melrose abbey every Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, and are open to the general public.

CHURCH TO GIVE SONG SERVICE

A rousing old-fashioned song and hymn service, with the dynamic speaking of Evangelist Adelaide Mills, has been combined with the evening services at the Bethel Tabernacle during the past week a great success.

The Rev. D. W. McLain and the Rev. Emma McLain, co-pastors, urge the public to attend. Services will be held Sunday at 7:30 p. m. "Hell, Come Here This Message" will be the topic.

Rev. A. W. Parham, Rev. W. C. Parham, Co-Pastor, Rev. Alice W. Parham

Our Costly State Government

NOW that the national election is settled, California voters should turn their attention to the amazing and staggering increase in the cost of state government.

Careening along in a leaderless sort of way, Governor Merriam's administration since it took office has permitted a tremendous increase in the state expenses.

Cost of the state government when Merriam took over the reins in 1934 was $163,796,953. This year—after only two years of Merriam—it has soared to $200,238,060! Increase for the past 12 months was $31,000,000!

Where did it go? Well, $23,500,000 went for relief. With that expenditure we have no fault to find. The needy are going to be cared for in California.

But other increases were: New buildings, $3,355,000; interest on registered warrants, $793,000; board of equalization, $424,515; franchise tax commissioner, $157,656; department of finance, $114,119; department of motor vehicles, $687,699; highway department, $1,000,000; and others.

The governor isn't responsible directly for every cent of this, of course. But his glaring inability to lead the legislature and to guide the public in administrative matters has a lot to do with the way spenders are running through state funds.

Unless Governor Merriam and his aides provide some substantial economy and retrenchment measures in the next legislature, they are going to have to answer for their failure at the polls in 1938.

Two women, both claiming to be his wife by law or common law, are suing Stan Laurel for alimony or separate maintenance. Oh, to be a successful comedian!

Bonus for Workers

THE Chrysler corporation will split a $4,000,000 bonus among 67,000 employees next month, according to President K. T. Keller. It will be the third bonus this year and will bring the total to $3,300,000 in excess of wages.

That's profit sharing—of the best kind. Too often corporation directors and business owners think only of themselves and the stockholders when splitting profits.

They are so used to being bosses, that they have a tendency to claim credit for all of the gains—and to forget that the hard and faithful labor of employees has had as much to do with success as the efficient executive work.

If more profit-making corporations would follow the intelligent example of the Chrysler organization, there would be fewer strikes and labor difficulties to delay America's march toward prosperity.

In Los Angeles a jealous wife has been fined $10 for assaulting a fan dancer. Other wives will probably make her a national martyr.

Beware the Graveyard

ELEVEN people in Orange county—perhaps you are one of them—will be killed in automobile accidents before New Year's day!

This is not a wild-haired guess. It is a sound forecast, based on the monthly average of traffic murders in this area so far this year, as recorded by Coroner Earl Abbey.

You may be able to stay out of the graveyard by being careful when you drive. Since you cannot depend upon the "other fellow" to observe the highway rules, to stay sober, or to keep your car in good mechanical condition. You have to do those things yourself—and watch out for him besides.

Drive carefully—protect yourself—don't wake up under a tombstone!

With a new crop of stage amateurs all ready for the winter season, it is easy to see why the market for Hawaiian pineapples is going up.

No Republicans Left?

"Total Landon vote, 15,900,000.

"Votes promised to Landon by Townsend, 10,000,000.

"Votes promised to him by Al Smith, 3,000,000.

"Votes promised to him by Coughlin, 2,900,000.

"It is plain from this that Dr. Townsend, Al Smith and Father Coughlin supporters contributed the entire Landon vote, and, therefore, that there are no Republicans left," he concluded.

Our informant might be wrong, however. It's so easy to be wrong about elections. Remember the Digest poll?

Cheer up, friend. Your neighbor's favorite football team has also been beaten.

Another Good Year Ahead

WITH new officers elected, the Orange County Farm bureau is ready to launch another successful year. Dian R. Gardner has succeeded L. A. Bortz as president. L. P. Halderman is vice president. S. W. Stanley has been re-elected treasurer. R. J. McFadden state delegate, and R. D. Flaherty secretary.

Always active and interested in community and county affairs, the Farm bureau represents a group that deserves credit for much of the strength and progress of California agriculture.

Whimsies of O. O. McIntyre

The theater has netted but two outstanding hits so far this season.

But it continues to zoom its skyrocketly flair across the nightly pink haze of the Broadway heavens. From 8 to 9

p. m. midtown takes on a top hat gallantry and unbridled elegance.

Restaurant crowds are in the ephemeral flush of their cocktail glow

and poised under marquees and in foyers to indulge all their showy

"Here I am!" artifices with that expert off-hand casualness that stamps phony on parade. You'd think they'd know it's comedy even to autograph addicts.

Every weekday evening of winter is an opening night along the Rialto. And the first nights are as standardized as the gang at the postoffice waiting for the evening mail. To be in at the death of a play or acrobaticism of a hit is a stroke in the cafe society whirl.

A symbol one belongs.

All the traffic arteries are clogged with the finest in motor op-erence. And the sidewalks overflow into the gutter. Midtown,

Mardi Gras fashion, moves in inches. The spirit is carnival. The heady hoopla that effervesces light hearts the world over.

There is also the "movie hour" between 6 and 7. Not so starchy but adding a zestful zing to the street and sidewalk olla-podrida.

They are chiefly commuters who dine at 5 in cozy restaurants niched in side streets. Unlike the hurrying Manhattanite they idle before window displays, stop to hear the pitchmen and as O. Henry once aptly described as "The sort who accept advertising handbills from the passers." They are mostly young Aprils who hold hands or do a little on the shoulder reclin-

That Automat nudging the Globe

is one of the chief meeting places of the early crowd.

Too, there's that cul de sac

dubbed Shubert Alley, a smooth pond in the whirlpool back of the Astor. It is the gathering place for those who come on nightly theatrical crumbs. Spewrows that fell—the bonneted—flower seller, trembling pencil hawkers, chewing gum peddlers and such.

A guild that never invades the priority of one of their kind. It was Alan Dale, I think, who christened the blind aperture Shu-

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

Editor's note: Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen herewith hand their famous brass ring, "good for one free ride on the Washington Merry-Go-Round," to Sumner Welles, premier career diplomat of the U. S. state department. The ring goes only to those who can ride the Merry-Go-Round "without losing their heads or their sense of humor."

WASHINGTON.—Probably the one Roosevelt policy which both Democrats and Republicans approve is his good neighbor policy toward Latin-America. And the man really responsible for that policy is a tall and austere gentleman who lurks in the background of the American delegation as it sails next week for the Pan-American peace conference at Buenos Aires.

He is Sumner Welles, assistant secretary of state in charge of Latin-American affairs. Welles is one of the most astute and successful behind-the-scenes operators in the state department. Seldom does he, himself, appear on the firing line. He works through Roosevelt or Secretary of State Hull. They get the credit. But he is the inspiration and genius behind some of their most successful moves in foreign policy.

Welles was a boy in knee breeches at the wedding of Eleanor Roosevelt to Franklin Roosevelt. They were married in the home of his godmother, Mrs. Henry Parish, jr., who also is Mrs. Roosevelt's godmother.

Later Welles became a career diplomat, was recommended for appointment by Roosevelt when F. D. R. was assistant secretary of the navy. Although a mere youngster, Welles had a notable career, specializing in Latin-American relations. He was made high commissioner to the Dominican republic while in his early thirties, was responsible for the withdrawal of American Marines and other good neighbor moves.

LOS ANGELES.—Only five men out of the fourth venire drawn in the McNamara case presented excuses today pleading to Judge Bordwell, Harry Chandler, son-in-law of General Otis, proprietor of The Times, was excused only temporarily.

Sixteen or more general subjects of legislation will be considered at the special session of the legislature called for Dec. 6, according to Governor Hiram Johnson. The subjects include a presidential primary law, a constitutional amendment providing free textbooks for schools, and weights and measures.

"Yes sir, it is true that the West End Improvement company has under consideration the erection of a five-story office building at the corner of Fourth and Birch streets," said F. P. Nickey, president of the company, today. "We believe that such a building is needed and that our location is just the place for it."

Miss Pauline Parsons is expected home from Washington, D. C., tomorrow. She has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harvey Graham, in that city.

LIKES RADIO NEWS

To the Editor: The Journal is certainly rendering a fine service in its broadcasts of news over station KVOE. We find the world news especially fine, and also enjoy very much listening to Frank Orr, the announcer. He really puts snap and sparkle into it and we think he is as good any on the coast.

We have been readers of your paper ever since it started and is getting better all the time. We enjoy the new comics and the society news especially.

LAUGHTER IN THE LAW

Rudel Heath, commonly known as "the shooting gal from Texas," was granted before the court to justify the shooting of a boyfriend in Hollywood because he refused to marry her. Her excuse was that the young man delayed the date of marriage too long. She got tired of waiting. One Sunday she walked into the drug store where the grocer-to-be was dispensing drinks to the Hollywood movie stars. The Texas gal briskly demanded, "Are you going to marry me today?" The boy-friend did not reply hastily. So she fired two shots at him. Judge Burnell lectured that it was not the proper thing for a girl to do, and that she offended the peace and dignity of the people of the state of California. He fined the prisoner one dollar.
